Thanks for a great TRS Recital!

The TRS Spring Recital, held on May 15 at Croasdaile Village in Durham, was a roaring success. Eight ensembles and soloists entertained TRS members and friends with a lively assortment of Renaissance, Baroque, and traditional pieces from the UK and China. Many thanks to all who participated!

TRS is a chapter of the American Recorder Society.

Thanks for another great year!

As you may know, June is the last meeting of the year for Triangle Recorder Society.

We will take July and August off for summer break, and then resume our playing meetings in September.

Thanks to everyone who has participated this year. Have a restful and safe summer.

Check the TRS web site for news and fall meeting schedule, which will be announced in August.

Summer Workshop Opportunities

Even though the TRS takes a break in the summer, you don't have to take a break from making music! Consider a summer workshop, and experience a week (or more!) of total immersion in recorder and early music playing with friends old and new. Opportunities abound across the country. Here are three you may be interested in:

Mountain Collegium in nearby Cullowhee

Amherst Early Music at Connecticut College

Music Week at Pinewoods near Cape Cod

A complete listing of workshops and other early music events can be found on the ARS website:
